9 FEBBRAIO, 2025 V (5) DOMENICA DEL TEMPO ORDINARIO

Oggi, il Vangelo ci offre il dialogo semplice e allo stesso tempo profondo tra Gesù e Simone Pietro, dialogo che potremmo far nostro: tra le acque burrascose di questo mondo, ci sforziamo a nuotare controcorrente, cercando la buona pesca di un annuncio del Vangelo che ottenga una risposta fruttuosa...

Soltanto chi, come Pietro, ha saputo accettare la sua limitazione, è in condizione di ammettere che i frutti del suo lavoro apostolico non sono suoi ma di Colui del quale è stato uno strumento. Il Signore chiama gli Apostoli ad essere pescatori di uomini, ma il vero pescatore è Lui: Il buon discepolo non è superiore alla rete che raccoglie la pesca, e, questa rete solo risulta effettiva se agisce come lo fecero gli Apostoli: abbandonando tutto e seguendo il Signore

*Venite, vi farò
Pescatori di uomini*

Come, I will make you fishermen of men.

5TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In today's Gospel we have another dramatic calling of the apostles into the service of God; and again, these three (Peter, James and John), the leaders when called, drop everything and follow Christ.

It is sad that so many people are lonely or bored without a purpose in life while at the same time, there are so many "needs" by others. Our Catholic faith is built on the idea of community and helping one another. Our call to serve God runs the full spectrum of human needs, both earthly and spiritual, and so we are challenged to answer the question: "Whom shall I send?" Hopefully we will respond as Isaiah did by saying: "Here I am; send me!" Something to think about this week.

Pope Francis has joyfully proclaimed that 2025 will be an Ordinary Jubilee Year, with the theme Pilgrims of Hope. In his Papal Bull announcing the Jubilee, Spes Non Confundit (Hope Does Not Disappoint), the Holy Father encourages us to “fan the flame of hope that has been given us, and help everyone to gain new strength and certainty by looking to the future with an open spirit, a trusting heart and far-sighted vision.”

WE NEED YOUR HELP:

We need Sunday School teachers for the 12noon Mass.

As Sunday school teachers, you are responsible for teaching the Word of God and encouraging our children to apply it in their daily lives

As Sunday school teachers, you can teach them that they are God's precious creation; he made them unique and has a purpose for their lives. This knowledge will give them the confidence to "be Jesus" in school.

If you can help us out, please send us an email At stmarylondon@dol.ca

Thank you in advance for your help. God bless.
